

STRIKE DISCLAIMER

In the event of a strike against it by a labor organization certified under the Minnesota Public Employment Labor Relations Act, the University shall not be held liable for damages resulting from its consequent failure to perform any or all obligations arising out of any contracts, whether explicit or implied, between the University and any student enrolled therein.