

ACADEMIC APPEALS COMMITTEE

(<http://catalog.smsu.edu/policies-procedures/academic-appeals/>)SMSU Policy G-005 (<http://catalog.smsu.edu/policies-procedures/academic-appeals/>) (<http://catalog.smsu.edu/policies-procedures/academic-appeals/>)

1. Committee Composition

The Academic Appeals Committee shall consist of the following members:

- a. Seven (7) faculty members selected by the Faculty Association.
- b. One (1) student appointed by the Student Association.
- c. Two (2) members appointed by the Provost, only one of whom has voting rights for any given appeal.

2. Scope

The Academic Appeals Committee shall hear all cases related to:

- a. Students with grade appeals.
- b. Students accused of violations of the Academic Honesty policy, (SMSU Policy A-032)
- c. Students failing to make Satisfactory Academic Progress. (SMSU Policy A-005)

3. Student Rights

Students involved in an Academic Appeals Committee hearing shall have the following rights:

- a. Students have the right to an advisor in preparing for hearings and/or to be present at appeal hearings. Should an advisor choose to be present at the hearing, he/she may only respond to direct questions from the committee.
- b. Students have the right to appear at appeal hearings and present evidence or witnesses. A student may meet with the Academic Appeals Committee in person, or if they are unable to travel to campus for the appeal, may meet with the committee via teleconferencing.
 - i. To meet via teleconferencing, students are responsible for having the technology needed for the meeting. At the time students are notified of the opportunity for appeal, they will receive information regarding the software needed for a teleconference.
 - ii. Students choosing teleconferencing must also submit written materials for the appeal, in case there are problems with technology.
- c. Students have the right to decline to be present at appeal hearings and may present evidence in writing. The University shall respect the right of an individual to refuse to testify against himself/herself.
- d. The Academic Appeals Committee shall not consider statements against an individual associated with the appeal unless she/he is present when the statements are made or she/he is advised in writing of their content and the names of those who made them and unless she/he is given an opportunity to rebut unfavorable inferences which might otherwise be drawn.
- e. Students will have the right to review any evidence against them.

4. Student Grade Appeals

- a. Criteria for Grade Appeals: Students have the right to know the objective of a course in which they are enrolled and the criteria which will be used in evaluating their performance in a course. Any student may initiate a grade appeal if the student has grounds to believe that:

- i. The course objectives were significantly changed in a manner so as to create unfair treatment; or
- ii. The criteria for evaluations were significantly changed in a manner so as to create unfair treatment; or
- iii. Evaluation was arbitrary or capricious.

b. Grade Appeal Process

- i. Present Case to Faculty Member: If a student has grounds to appeal a grade, she/he should present his/her case to the faculty member who awarded the grade. If the meeting of the faculty member and the student fails to resolve the student's complaint, she/he may appeal to the Academic Appeal Committee.
- ii. Appeal to the Academic Appeals Committee: Students wishing to appeal a grade to the Academic Appeals Committee may do so by contacting the appropriate Dean and completing a Student Grade Appeal form. The Student Grade Appeal Form shall include information supplied by the student that includes where and when the meeting with the faculty member occurred (date, time, place). The Student Grade Appeal Form shall outline the student's case for the appeal and include any supporting documentation regarding the grade appeal. The Dean will forward a copy of the Student Grade Appeal Form to the faculty member. (An appeal is initiated with the filing of the Student Grade Appeal Form with the Dean.) The Dean will advise the student of his/her rights:
 1. Students have the right to an advisor or counsel in preparing for hearings and/or to be present at appeal hearings.
 2. Students have the right to appear at appeal hearings and present evidence or witness.
 3. Students have the right to decline to be present at appeal hearings and may present evidence in writing. The University shall respect the right of an individual to refuse to testify against himself/herself.
 4. The Academic Appeals Committee shall not consider statements against an individual associated with the appeal unless she/he is present when they are made or she/he is advised in writing of their content and the names of those who made them and unless she/he is given an opportunity to rebut unfavorable inferences which might otherwise be drawn.
- iii. Recording the Appeal: Recordings of all appeals shall be made and kept by the Office of the Provost. The records will be destroyed one (1) academic semester after the appeal is completed. All evidence presented in the course of an appeal shall be held in the strictest confidence. No portion of the proceedings of the Committee shall appear in any permanent records kept on the student or faculty member.
- iv. Deadline for Filing an Appeal: At the end of Spring Semester and/or Summer Term, a student has thirty (30) days from the start of the subsequent Fall Semester in which to appeal a grade. In the event that the grade being appealed was received at the end of Fall Semester, the student must initiate an appeal by the end of the thirtieth (30) calendar day from the beginning of the subsequent Spring Semester.

c. Decisions of the Academic Appeals Committee

Decisions of the Academic Appeal Committee will not include making a specific grade change, but may include a mandatory re-evaluation of the student, by the faculty member or a consultant in the same discipline. If a consultant is to be used, the consultant will be selected by the Academic Appeal Committee. Such re-evaluation and its results shall be submitted to the Committee before the case in consummated. Decisions of the Academic Appeal Committee are final and mandatory for both the student and the faculty. The Dean has the responsibility to insure that arbitrary or punitive decisions shall not extend into the re-evaluation process. It is to the benefit of the person making the appeal to be present at the hearing.

d. Communicating the Committee's Decision

The Dean shall communicate the decision of the Committee in writing with reasons to the student and the faculty member within five (5) instructional days after receiving the Committee's decision.

5. Academic Honesty Appeal

- a. The Deans' Office will notify both the complainant and referred student by letter of the date, time and location of the hearing. This notification shall occur at least 72 hours prior to the Committee's meeting. For purposes of an Academic Honesty Appeal, the Academic Appeals Committee will select a chairperson who will preside at the hearing and will rule upon procedural matters.
- b. The student will receive:
 - i. A list of the names of the material witnesses who may be called to speak at the hearing on behalf of the university.
 - ii. Copies of all documents or written statements to be presented at the hearing.
 - iii. The name and title of the person who will present the evidence on behalf of the university. At least three (3) days prior to the hearing, the student will provide the Academic Appeal Committee's Chairperson any written documentation to be presented by the student and the names of any material witnesses who will be called by the student at the hearing. It is the responsibility of the accused to notify these witnesses of the time, date, and location of the hearing.
 - iv. Information regarding admissible information and expectations about comportment during the hearing.
- c. The Hearing Process and Deliberations
 - i. Formal rules of evidence will not apply, although objections to introduction of specific statements or documents may be considered by the chair. Irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious information may be excluded by the chair. Evidence of prior misconduct by the accused will be admissible only after a finding that a Code of Conduct violation has been committed and may be used in the determination of recommended sanction(s).
 - ii. The reporting faculty member will present the evidence, which supports the alleged charge(s) and will have the burden of showing that it is more likely than not that a violation of the Academic Honesty Policy has occurred.
 - iii. Following their testimony, material witnesses will be asked to remain in the hearing room until the committee begins deliberations. The complainant and accused may remain throughout the entire hearing.
 - iv. The order of presentation at the hearing will be as follows:

1. The faculty member may present an opening statement.
2. The accused may present an opening statement.
3. The chair will call witnesses for the faculty member to provide statements.
4. The chair will then call witnesses for the student to provide statements.
- v. At the conclusion of each witness's statement, he/she may be re-questioned by the student, faculty member, or by members of the Academic Appeals Hearing Committee. Any witness may be recalled.
- vi. Following the testimony of all witnesses, case summations may be presented by the faculty member and then by the student.
- vii. Only the members of the hearing committees may be present during deliberations. A simple majority of votes is necessary to make a recommendation that a Code of Conduct more likely than not occurred. A majority plus one (1) vote is necessary to recommend suspension or expulsion from the university.
- viii. The Hearing Committee's Chairperson shall notify the student of the Committee's findings and decision in writing within five (5) class days of the hearing. Notification will include information regarding the appeal procedure.
- ix. Copies of the decision letter will be sent to the Academic Dean's office, the student and the faculty member. Any other persons receiving a copy of the decision letter will be indicated as copied.
- x. Appeals of an Academic Appeals Committee decision regarding an Academic Honesty charge may be appealed to the Provost as outlined in section 7 below.

6. Satisfactory Academic Progress Procedures

- A designee of the Provost shall serve as Secretary of the Committee and shall be responsible for the following tasks:
- a. Notifying students who are on academic suspension and advising these students of their right to appeal for reinstatement to the Academic Appeals Committee. Students shall also be advised of their rights as specified in section 3, above.
 - b. Development of Appeal and Committee Decision forms in consultation with the Committee.
 - c. Provision of student transcripts and test scores to be used in the Committee hearings.
 - d. Notification of appealing students in writing of the Committee's decision. If a student has been denied reinstatement, she/he should also be informed of his/her right to appeal to the Provost.
 - e. Implementation of the Committee's decisions.

7. Decisions of the Academic Appeals Committee

Decisions of the Academic Appeals Committee regarding Satisfactory Academic Progress and Academic Honesty cases may be appealed to the Provost in writing no later than the end of the semester following the semester in which the decision of the Committee was rendered. Decisions rendered in the Spring Semester must be appealed no later than the end of the Fall Semester of the following academic year. Grade appeals may not be appealed to the Provost.

The Provost's decision, either upholding or rejecting the decision of the Academic Standing Appeals Committee shall be communicated in writing, with reasons, to the student and the Committee members within five (5) instructional days after the appeal to the Provost. A copy of this communication shall be maintained in the student's confidential file (with the Provost).

8. Expectation of Confidentiality

All evidence presented in the course of any appeal shall be held in the strictest confidence. No portion of the proceedings shall appear in any permanent records kept on the student or faculty members involved in the appeal.